

DAVID K. OLIVERIA

Deputy Chief for Installations and Logistics (M4) Bureau of Medicine and Surgery

Mr. David Oliveria, a native of Jacksonville, Florida, received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Oceanography at the United States Naval Academy and was commissioned in the Naval service in 1975.

Mr. Oliveria was designated a Naval Aviator and completed operational tours as a Patrol Plane Commander, Mission Commander, and Instructor Pilot with Patrol Squadron FORTY-SIX, Moffett Field, California, and Patrol Squadron SEVENTEEN, Barbers Point Hawaii. During these assignments he completed deployments to Misawa, Japan; Keflavik, Iceland; Adak, Alaska; and Cubi Point, Republic of the Philippines. As an instructor pilot while assigned to Patrol Squadron THIRTY, Jacksonville, Florida, he served as the Atlantic Fleet Personnel Qualifications Standards Evaluator and Maintenance Material Control Officer, overseeing the maintenance associated with thirty-one P-3 Orions. He also served as the Communications Officer aboard USS MIDWAY then forward deployed to Yokosuka, Japan. During this tour, he qualified as In-port and Underway Command Duty Officer and Replenishment Conning Officer.

While assigned to the Staff of the Secretary of the Navy, Office of Legislative Affairs, he represented the Department of the Navy's Operations and Maintenance budget request on Capitol Hill. In 1990, he reported to Patrol Squadron SIXTEEN, Jacksonville, Florida, as Executive Officer and assumed command in 1991, while deployed to Keflavik, Iceland. During his tenure, the squadron attained 185,000 accident free flight hours and participated in CNO Special Interest Operations in South America.

David received his Master of Arts Degree in National Security and International Affairs from the Naval War College in March 1993 and was selected to serve as a political-military affairs officer at the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency where he dealt with issues related to export controls and the proliferation of chemical and biological weapons. He was a member of the United States Delegation to the Australia Group and on served on various U.S. overseas delegations for export controls. For his efforts, he was awarded the Secretary of State Meritorious Honor Award, the only uniformed officer of the Arms Control Agency to ever receive this award.

In 1995, he again joined the staff of the Secretary of the Navy where he served as the Legislative Analyst to the Secretary, Naval Aide and Executive Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Installations & Environment), and later, Naval Aide and Executive Assistant to the Under Secretary of the Navy. He was honorably discharged from active service in November 2000.

In November 2000, David was appointed as Clerk of Court, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Middle District of Florida, then the third largest bankruptcy court in the Nation. During his tenure as clerk, he managed the successful transition to paperless files and record keeping for three divisional courts in north and central Florida that included nine judges and a staff of over 250 personnel. In 2001, He received the Director's Award for Excellence in Court Operations.

David returned to the Washington D.C. area and joined CACI International in January of 2006 where he served as a business systems analyst at Commander Navy Installations Command (CNIC) in support of the Navy's Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) program. His portfolio included the BRAC actions related to the closure and realignment of the Navy's medical facilities. In 2007, he joined the staff of Navy Medicine National Capital Area (NAVMED NCA) as the BRAC program manager and successfully led the realignment of the National Naval Medical Center and the Walter Reed Army Medical Center. He also served as the Regional Facilities Director and BRAC Program Manager for NAVMED NCA.

Mr. Oliveria joined the staff of the Navy's Bureau of Medicine and Surgery in March of 2012 and now serves as the Deputy Chief for Installations and Facilities (M4).
